

KIANDRA HISTORICAL SOCIETY
Meeting at Kiandra: 18 November 2003

AGENDA

- 1 Introduction/Background (Hugh Capel)
- 2 Purpose of Meeting
 - To put information into the public domain
 - Not concerned with physical preservation
- 3 Proposed Objectives of the Society/Group:
 - To preserve and disseminate the human history of Kiandra
- 4 Proposed Method of Operation
 - No membership fees – anyone can join – communication to be by phone and email to minimise effort and cost
- 5 Range of Subject Matter – to be agreed at meeting
 - Contact persons to be confirmed for each subject matter heading on the web page (eg skiing, fishing, each family history etc)
- 6 Opportunities provided by Web Site Development at www.kiandra.net - discussion
 - Call for computer literate volunteers/nominees to work with subject matter contact persons
 - All posted material to indicate who has authorised it
 - Hugh Capel to be the coordination and clearing person for all proposed web page content (for the time being)
- 7 Where to Next/Project Plan
 - Contact persons to report progress by end February.
 - Material to be prepared by subject matter contacts for posting in April 2004
 - Future Meetings – to be agreed
 - Contact Arrangements – everyone to provide their contact details in the Members Book

Launch of "Kiandra Gold" by Paddy Kerrigan

Break for Refreshments

Display of Material by Trixie Clugston